Editorial Note

I am pleased to introduce Journal of Healthcare Communications (IPJHCC) a rapid peer reviewed Journal which have a key concerns over the medical practices by exploring the best patient oriented healthcare research and by exhibiting this information both directly, as clinical and medical findings, and in practice oriented formats of direct application in day-to-day situations. I am pleased to announce that, all issues of volume 4 were published online well within the time and the print issues were also brought out and dispatched within 30 days of publishing the issue online during the year of 2019.

The Journals aims to flourish and to maintain the standards in research and practice, provide platform and opportunity to present evidence based medicine and analytical assessment of research and probably it is much in deed for students, teachers and health care professionals to enhance the patient care.

During the calendar year of 2019, IPJHCC received a total of 30 manuscript, out of which 11 articles were rejected in the preliminary screening due to plagiarism or being out of the format and peer review process. During 2019 around 19 articles were subjected for publication after they are accepted in the peer review process. In the 4 issues of Volume 4 published during the year 2019, a total of 19 articles were published of which, articles were published from authors all around the world. Globally articles have been accessed by the research scientists and also cited.

I take this opportunity to acknowledge the contribution of (Dr. Kourkouta Lambrini) during the final editing of articles published and the support rendered by the editorial assistant, in bringing out issues of IPJHCC in time. I would also like to express my gratitude to all the authors, reviewers, the publisher, the advisory and the editorial board of IPJHCC, the office bearers for their support in bringing out yet another volume of IPJHCC and look forward to their unrelenting support to bring out the Volume 5 of IPJHCC in scheduled time.
